

Rental Spaces & Meeting Room Policy

Clark Public Library is a great place to hold an off-site meeting, staff training, team building event, interviews or other business meetings. The library is located near the Garden State Parkway and offers plenty of parking. The library has distinct meeting spaces that can accommodate large and small groups. The meeting rooms are available to be rented for use during the library's normal operating hours. Meeting rooms may be reserved for a maximum of one meeting per month; approval from the Director will be needed for additional meetings. Rooms may be booked up to 3 months in advance based on the library's programming schedule and availability. While the primary purpose of the Clark Public Library meeting space is to host library-sponsored events and activities, we are pleased to be able to share these beautiful rooms with area businesses, community partners, nonprofits, and other organizations.
